First Lady FAQ'S

Did you know that?

Julia Dent Grant
1826-1902

Julie Grant was the first First Lady to write her memoirs, however she never published them. They were finally published in 1975.

Julia's only connection to Ohio was that her son was born there while she was staying with her inlaws. Ulysses Grant was born in Ohio.

Julia's father Colonel Dent supported the Confederacy during the war and refused to speak to his son-in-law.

Julia loved life in the White House and even after 8 years was reluctant to leave, wishing her husband had chosen to run for a third term. She sobbed like a child when she climbed into her carriage to leave.

Spending her last years in Washington DC, she cultivated friendships with Frances Cleveland, Caroline Harrison and Edith Roosevelt.
